The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XXth Year.] THURSDAY, December 13, 1764. [No. 1023.]

LONDON, September 15.

WE hear the principal Reason of putting such a Number of Capital Ships into Commission, and also ordering all the Guard Ships to take on board their full Complement of Men, is to prevent their going into foreign Service.

Private Letters from Dublin, by Monday's Irish Mail, mention the abscounding of many People of Consequence there, occasioned by some alarming Proceedings; but we must wait the Event of another Post before we can give the Reasons.

The Ship Three Brothers, John Ford, Master, from America to Amsterdam, is foundered: The Captain and Crew are saved.

By Letters from Aix la Chappelle, of the 4th Instant, we are informed, that an Officer, who was in the last War a Captain in the Partizan Fischer's Corps, had supported himself there some Time by Gaming, but was reduced so low, that he had nothing remaining but his Cloaths. In order therefore to make a better Figure, he had recourse to forging Bills of Exchange, which were soon discovered, and two Grenadiers were sent to take him under an Arrest, from whom he disengaged himself; on which they went to the Main-guard, and fetched ten more Soldiers; by that Time the Captain had barricadoed his Apartment with his Bed, Bedstead, Table, Chairs, &c. and stood upon his Defence with Fire-arms; soon after he was attacked, in which he made a brave Defence, and Wounded two Men; but being apprehensive that they would make a second Attack, he charged his Arms a-fresh to receive them: The Assailants having been reinforced, made a general Assault on the Door of his Room, and the Captain firing a Carbine, shot the Subaltern Officer who Commanded the Detachment, through his Mouth into his Shoulder, of which he soon after died. Our Hero being almost overpowered, attempted to shoot himself, but the Pistol missed Fire, on which the Soldiers rushing in upon him, he received a Shot, and four Stabs from their Bayonets, when they took him, being much Wounded, laid him across six Muskets, and thus carried him to Prison, where he died the next Day.

Sept. 24. Some Letters from the Hague say, that the Dutch are going to raise a Number of Men, to be sent to Batavia forthwith, in Consequence of some unfavourable Advices lately received from the Governor of that Place.

Extract of a Letter from New-England, July 27.

"All our Money is gone and going to England to pay our Debts. No Money is like to be in the Country. Our Trade to the French and Spanish Islands, from whence we used to get Money, is stopped; Men of War being placed along our Coasts for that Purpose. Husbandry is discouraged, for there is no vent for Provision. Merchants and Farmers are breaking, and all Things going into Confusion. Murmurings, Law-suits, and Contentions greatly prevail."

By the Contracts which we are informed divers Navy Pursers have for some Days past been making at the Victualling Offices in two famous out Ports, it is conjectured, that a considerable Fleet is designed to sail for the East Indies, where they may possibly enforce the Ransom of the Manillas by Word of Mouth.

The very civil and polite French Officers of the Excise in searching the baggage of his Highness Prince George Augustus of Mecklenburgh-Strelitz, at the entered Perron, found Half a Pound of superfine Spanish Snuff, which they seized with prodigious Politeness; and though his Highness assured them it was a Present made him for his own Use by Prince Masserano, Ambassador from Spain to the Court of Great Britain, they would not deliver the Baggage, until he paid them Two Hundred Livres. So very respectful was their Behaviour to the Brother of the Queen of Great Britain. They have omitted no Instance of shewing their Regard to us since the Peace, which redounds such Glory on the Minister who made it.

The Folly of our mimicking the French Fashions, was never more conspicuous than in our adopting the little trimming dish Nivernois Hat. Is it not evident the Size of the Hat is reduced by them, because they have lost the Fur Trade? Is not their Want of Fur after still more evident, from the Pains taken by their People of the highest Rank, to cover their hits of Hat with Oil-skin to preserve them? Whereas we, who are possessed of the Fur Trade, are hurting the Interest of Trade by an imitation so evident Ridiculous, that for it we are laughed at by every Court in Europe.

Oct. 3. By an Article from the London Gazette dated at the Admiralty Office, October the 2d, we are informed that all the Complaints that have lately appear'd in the Prints, of the Infraction of the Articles of the Treaty of Peace, by the French at Newfoundland, are intirely Groundless, for that they have in every particular, strictly complied with the Articles of the said Treaty.

Repeated Complaints from the New-England Colonies, of the late Innovations injurious to their Trade, have for some Time past been under particular Consideration.

It is reported, that the Marriage Portion of a great Personage will be 80,000l. but that the Marriage will not take Place till the Meeting of the Parliament.

It is reported that a large Quantity of Naval Stores will be speedily sent to Gibraltar, for Conveniency of Refitting any of our Ships that may have occasion to put in there.

Oct. 6. It is said a Memorial has been transmitted to our Ministers at Lisbon, containing no less than 21 oppressive Articles of Trade which the English Commerce now Labour under through the partial or rather ungrateful Behaviour of the Portuguese towards the trading Subjects of this Kingdom.

We are informed a certain great Personage in the Ministry, having been asked a few Days ago, What was to be done with so many Ships of War as have lately been commissioned, seeing the French and Spaniards have disavowed all hostile Intentions? made answer, That even allowing it to be so, the Legislature were nevertheless convinced of the Utility of maintaining a Considerable naval Force, if it were only to keep our Ships from rotting in Harbour, and the Spirits of British Sailors from relaxing; that it was not enough to keep a few guard Ships at home, and on the American Stations; we should also command Respect abroad, by constant Cruisers visiting the Mediterranean, Baltic, and the Ports of our Allies; the former Neglect of which has frequently exposed English Merchant Ships to Insults from those of other Nations.

By Letters arrived by the Piggot, from Bengal, we hear, that at her Departure there were very few Troops at that Place; that Cossim Aly Cawn had been joined by some Princes of the Country; that several Mutinies had happened among our Troops, one of which was quelled, though with the Loss of an Hundred Europeans, besides Seapoys; that the different Mutinies were not subdued; and that it was much feared, that by this Time Bengal is no longer in our Hands.

The same Advices say, that Major Adams is certainly dead; and we further hear, another principal in command (feared to be Major Carnac) is dead also.

The general report is, that the Company's Affairs abroad bear but an indifferent Aspect, that Part of the English had deserted to the Enemy, and that Sha Sadir, Cossim Aly Cawn, and the Prince to whom he fled after his Defeat, were determined to unite their Forces against the English.

A Correspondent at Paris writes, that the Jesuits are moving Heaven and Earth to re-establish themselves in France. In the Parliament of Provence, they have obtained a Majority in their Favour; in those of Grenoble, Besancon, Dijon and Metz, they have gained many Voices; that of Douay is Unanimous for them; and even in the Parliaments of Paris, Rouen, Rennes, Toulouse, Bourdeaux and Pau, which have been so strenuous against them, they are now said to have several powerful Friends.

October 9. They write from Norway, that four large Dutch Ships are now loading there with Oak Plank, Ship Timber, and other Articles in the Building Way, for the Use of the French Yards at Brest, &c.

October 11. Letters from Warsaw of the 15th of September, say, that their new King on receiving the Diploma of his Election, addressed himself so movingly to the Deputies, that he drew Tears from the Eyes of most who were present, in which they were plentifully followed by his Majesty, but that they knew not what might be the Object of it.

It is said a strong Reinforcement of Soldiers will be immediately sent to Lord Clive at Bengal; and that several Sergeants and Corporals of the Guards are going over with them.

A Nobleman of the first Distinction will be sent to congratulate his Polish Majesty on his Accession to the Throne.

Advices from Frankfort on the Main, inform, that the Marquis d'Argens, Chamberlain to the King of Prussia, arrived there on the 2d of this Month, in his Way to Paris, where he is going to execute a Commission of great Importance.

A Correspondent at Amsterdam writes, that there were no less than seven Ships of War upon the Stocks at that Port, viz. two of 70 Guns, one of 60, two of 50, and two of 40. At Rotterdam, one of 64, and two of 36 Guns. And at Middleborough, in Zealand, three of different Sorts. At Amsterdam, they were also busy in Shipping 350 Pieces of Ordnance for France, besides near 1000 Tons of Cordage.

In the late dispatches to the Court of Madrid, among other important Articles, are said to be contained express Orders to the Earl of Rochefort, to demand Spain's final Determination, with regard to the Ransom of the Manillas: According to which our Ministry are to regulate certain Affairs of Importance now upon the Carpet.

We can with good Authority assure the Public, that altho' by the last advices from Bengal, the East-India Company were informed there had been a Mutiny among the Troops, instigated and encouraged by some French Soldiers, about 150 in Number, who had inlisted in the Company's Service; yet the same, at the Time of dispatching those Advices, was quelled, without the Loss or Desertion of a single European, except those Frenchmen abovementioned: And the same Advices add, that the Settlements were then in perfect Safety; nor was it certain that Sujah Dowlar had espoused the Cause of Cossim Aly, further than receiving him into his Dominions, which was long ago known, his Father not having moved a Step out of his own Country.

We are informed that Somerset-House is ordered to be elegantly furnished, and got ready for the Reception of his Serene Highness the Duke of Mecklenburgh-Strelitz, whose Arrival is expected here before the End of this Month.

Yesterday se'nnight died at the Grosvenor Inn, aged 44, his Grace William Cavendish, Duke of Devonshire, whose amiable Sweetness of Disposition, and benevolent Heart, not only endeared him to his Friends, but rendered him the Delight of Mankind.

Thursday Night the Duke of Devonshire's Will was opened, when the following Codicil, which till then had been a profound Secret, appeared in his Grace's own Hand Writing, dated July 23, "I give to General Conway, 5000l. as a Testimony of my Friendship for him; and of my Sense of his honourable Conduct and Friendship for me."

It is said the 30th of next Month is appointed for solemnizing an ensuing Ceremony.

October 26. We are assured, that a certain popish Gentleman, who was supposed to be confined to Fricasees and Soup maigre abroad, has lately been seen to take an English Dinner at the House of an intimate Friend in Surry.

The Parliament which stood prorogued to Tuesday the 30th Day of this Instant October, is by the King's Proclamation, further prorogued to Thursday, the 29th Day of January next, when it will sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs.

We are informed, that all the Clerks in the Office of Ordnance at the Tower, have their Salaries augmented.

NEW-YORK, December [illegible]

We are credibly aſſured, that Sir William [illegible] ſon propoſes calling down the Chiefs of every [illegible] tion this Winter to his Hall, on Buſineſs of great Importance to England, and the People in America. A great Number of Indians came to Sir William's the 6th of laſt Month. The whole we hope will terminate to the Honour of his Majeſty, and the general Benefit of his Subjects.

On Tueſday arrived the Sloop Friend, Capt. John Malcom, in 16 Days from Quebec, by whom we hear, that a conſiderable Quantity of Snow had already fallen there, and the Winter ſeemed to be ſet in earlier than uſual; but the People were generally healthy, and extremely happy under the Civil Government lately eſtabliſhed there, which was ſo judiciouſly regulated as to give general Satisfaction and Advantage both to the Engliſh and French; and the Appointment and Conduct of all the Officers in the Adminiſtration, eſpecially of his Excellency the Governor, met with the higheſt Approbation from all Ranks of People.

PHILADELPHIA, December [illegible]

On Monday laſt arrived here Major Small, in his Way to New-York, with Diſpatches from Col. BOUQUET to General GAGE; our Advices by that Gentleman are as follow:

That he left the Army in high Spirits, encamped at the Forks of Muſkingham, on the 18th ult. That the Expedition into the Indian Country has had the deſired Effect, the Mingoe, Delaware and Shawaneſe Indians, after a long Struggle, having at laſt ſubmitted to the Terms preſcribed to them, viz.

1. To deliver up all the Priſoners without Exception.

2. To give Fourteen Hoſtages, to remain in our Hands, as a Security for the ſtrict Performance of the foregoing Article; and that they ſhall commit no Hoſtilities againſt His Majeſty's Subjects.

That upon theſe Conditions they are permitted to ſend Deputies from each Nation to Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, to make their Peace. That the Mingoes have given Two of the above mentioned Hoſtages, the Delawares Six, and the Shawaneſe Six. That from the preſent humble Diſpoſitions of the Savages, it was thought our Frontier Inhabitants might return in Safety to their deſerted Plantations. That the Indians had brought in above Two Hundred Priſoners before the Major left the Camp, and above One Hundred more were daily expected. That the Delawares and Mingoes have not only delivered all their Priſoners, but even their own Children, born by White Women. That the Shawaneſe had been very obſtinate, but were forced to ſubmit to the ſame Conditions as the other Nations. That the Enemy were ſaid to be in the greateſt Diſtreſs, having neither Proviſions, Cloathing nor Powder, their Women, we hear, being covered with Skins only, and the Men in a ſtill worſe Condition; and that it was generally believed they are now ſincere, and the Peace will be laſting, as they were convinced, at laſt, that even their Woods could not proteſt them, when followed by ſo brave and judicious a Commander, at the Head of a gallant, though but ſmall Army; it being remarked, that the whole of the Troops on the Expedition have behaved in the moſt regular Manner, and ſhewn the greateſt Activity and Reſolution; and it is particularly mentioned, that the Men from this Province have carried on the Service with great Zeal and Chearfulneſs, and that their Conduct does them Honour in every Reſpect. That the Troops of this Government were to be ſent immediately to Carliſle, and with them the Priſoners belonging to it. That the Army have been very healthy, and had met with no Loſs ſince they left Pittſburgh, only one of the Light Horſe, who was killed by ſome Indians, ſuppoſed to be Wyondots, but that there were other Indians out after them, who promiſed to bring them in, if poſſible. And that the Colonel, with the Forces, it was expected, would be at Fort Pitt on Sunday laſt.
